

Doctor & Mr. Stamper

1 of 1

3.

DOCTOR, in his 50's has great bedside manners and truly cares about his patients. The INTERNS are professional and respectful.

DOCTOR (CONT'D)
How are we doing today?

MR. STAMPER
Well, one of us shouldn't be here.

DOCTOR
True words, sir. True words. And we are going to get one of us out of here, ASAP.

MR. STAMPER
Sounds like a plan.

DOCTOR
The nurse told you, I have future doctors stalking me today-

MR. STAMPER
Not a problem.

Doctor examines Mr. Stamper's stitched brow.

DOCTOR
How's Darlene? Right, Darlene.

MR. STAMPER
Passed.

DOCTOR
Oh, sorry. I could swear I just saw her in town the other day.

MR. STAMPER
Three months ago. Medicine didn't take.

DOCTOR
My condolences--

MR. STAMPER
It's life.

DOCTOR (CONT'D)
Darin, what does Mr. Stamper's chart say?

Doctor removes bandage from Mr. Stamper's arm, examines the stitching.

DARIN
Removal of third invasive carcinoma in two years.
